Officer Gorshkov (fnu) said: "We still have piles of this rubbish which neither I nor my comrades read." Later, he invited those who had heard his remark to five bottles of champagne and asked them not to speak about what he had said.

- 25X1A 1. [ ] Comment. The individual commissaries mentioned supply the following units:

Volovach - Fighter division in Zerbst;
 Gitan - Ground attack division in Brandenburg;
 Evmenkin - Fighter division in Laerz;
 Shurunov - Bomber corps in Finsterwalde;
 Masbkin - Probably the units in the Staaken-Schoenwalde-Doeberitz area which are directly subordinate to the Twenty-Fourth Air Army;
 Commissary Toporkov probably belongs to the Northern Ftr Corps.

- 25X1A 2. [ ] Comment. The IL-28 units, i.e. 6 bomber regiments and 1 reconnaissance regiment of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army left East Germany for an undetermined destination toward the east during late June and early July 1953. The reported observation, according to which only a rear detail of Commissary Shurunov is still present, confirms the transfer. So far, it has not been determined whether the bomber corps headquarters was also transferred.

- 25X1A 3. [ ] Comment. The headquarters of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army is quartered at Warden airfield. The aircraft observed at the field probably are courier aircraft of this headquarters.
